

Volunteer Opportunity 159a

Fundraising Volunteer

We require a lead fundraiser to help us make the most of fundraising opportunities and implement our fundraising strategy.

Where

From home

When

To suit you, ongoing

Commitment

6 hours per week

Why we want you

We want someone to lead and create innovative fund-raising activities to deliver a vital income stream for a small, local cancer charity. Recognising that traditional, in-person activities are not viable for the foreseeable future, we need someone with experience of the charity sector to develop creative fundraising ideas and encourage local individuals/organisations to fundraise on our behalf.

What's in it for you

This is a great opportunity for you to make a valuable contribution to supporting people living with cancer.

- You will be helping people in Huntingdonshire that need our support to enjoy the benefits of our programmes and services
- A case study for your portfolio.
- You'll gain experience of working in the charitable sector.
- You'll learn new skills or apply already learned ones.
- You'll meet new people and be part of a community.
- You'll get a lot of satisfaction knowing you play a vital role in enabling us to inform, educate and raise money to fund vital services in the areas of exercise, nutrition and emotional well-being.
- You'll enjoy a collaborative environment and contribute to a dynamic team

The talents you'll need

- Fundraising experience in the charity sector of both corporate and individual giving.
- Experience of creating and implementing a fundraising plan which involves a wide range of audiences, stakeholders and influencers.
- Enjoy networking and making connections to identify opportunities for raising money.
- Able to inspire and motivate others to get involved.
- A self-starter, able to work collaboratively across our virtual organisation.

Notes

Appropriate induction will be provided. Expenses will be re-imbursed where necessary.
